

I feel that nobody has the right to stop anyone from voicing their opinion if it is on the radio or cable tv. If anyone listening or watching doesn't like it they don't have to listen or watch it. All they have to do is turn it off. For those of us who do like what we are listening to or watching we should have the right to keep it on. freedom of speech is right in our amendments.